In a team of 3, allocate a letter to each individual- A, B or C. Person A write the first line of the poem. Person B write the 2nd and 3rd line, but fold the paper so that person C can only see your 2nd line of poetry. Person C write the 4th and 5th line, then fold the paper to show only your 2nd line to Person A. Person A write the final line of the poem. Finally open your poem up and reveal it to the entire group and class.
